To the right is a vertical menu with four categories: 'Active for life' (pink), 'Train to Win' (blue), 'Train to Compete' (light blue), and 'Train to Train' (green). A red arrow points to the 'Active for life' category. The 'Active for life' category includes the text 'Enter at any age'. The 'Train to Win' category includes 'Males 19+/-' and 'Females 18+/-'. The 'Train to Compete' category includes 'Males 16-23+/-' and 'Females 15-21+/-'. The 'Train to Train' category has no text. The main content area contains introductory text about the evaluation process and a 'BEGIN' button at the bottom right.

6. Click Begin.

The screenshot shows the eLearning portal interface for the 'Make Ethical Decisions (MED) Online Evaluation' page. The top navigation bar includes 'Be A Coach', 'What is the NCCP?', 'Coach Training', 'Coach Resources', 'Programs', 'About CAC', 'The Locker', and 'Logout'. The sidebar on the left shows a list of available courses, with 'Make Ethical Decisions Online Evaluation' highlighted. The main content area displays the course title and evaluation details: 'Language English' and 'Passing grade 75%'. Below this is a table showing the prerequisite 'Make Ethical Decisions' as 'COMPLETED' on '15-Aug-2004'. Three yellow warning boxes are present: 'You have the required training to take this evaluation free of any fees.', 'Please note that this eLearning module is not optimized for mobile devices.', and 'If a blank page appears when you click begin, click here to ensure you have adobe flash installed and enabled.' A red arrow points to the 'BEGIN' button at the bottom right.

7. A pop up window will appear. You can complete both Scenarios within the course, you need 75% to pass.
